

THURSDAY, JUNE 1:

Lift up the trips to Manakara, Mananjary and Farafangana taking place this month in Madagascar. May the training sessions lead to many people studying the Bible and growing in their relationship with God.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2:

Pray for the ministry trip to Ghana, ask God to use every workshop and meeting held to ignite a passion for His Word and result in new churches using Precept Bible studies.

SATURDAY, JUNE 3:

Please pray with Precept Nigeria as they strategise, plan and pray for ways to encourage new Bible study classes to start in the following regions: Ogun State, Taraba, Adamawa, Ekiti State, Kano State, Rivers and Imo State.

SUNDAY, JUNE 4:

Pray for the Bible study groups gathering in refugee camps in Africa. Ask God to encourage the leaders and raise new leaders to extend His Kingdom across the camps.

MONDAY, JUNE 5:

Lift up the students starting the final two weeks of the Precept Africa Institute today. Pray too for Stuart as he leads and for the translators who make it possible for all to follow in their heart languages.

TUESDAY, JUNE 6:

Ask God to use the Precept studies being done in prisons across the continent to bring about restoration and transformation in the lives of each prisoner and lead to many coming to a saving faith as a result.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7:

The first Precept South Africa prayer meeting starts today, ask God to grow these meetings into a large community of interceders for the ministry in South Africa.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8:

We rejoice over open doors to reach many across Africa with His Word. Pray with us for people who will partner financially so that Precept Africa is able to pursue each God-given opportunity.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9:

Bring the leaders that lead children in schools across the continent before the Lord today. Pray that they will be encouraged to keep on and that many children will come to know God more deeply through them.

SATURDAY, JUNE 10:

Please pray that the training taking place today and tomorrow in Kericho, Kenya will lead to many Bible studies starting in the community.

SUNDAY, JUNE 11:

Lift up the ministry partnerships in Madagascar that are helping to engage more people with God's Word and ask God for more opportunities for partnerships that will enable the reach to all areas of the country.

MONDAY, JUNE 12:

Pray for the students who are doing a Precept Bible study for the first time, ask God to speak to them in a powerful way through the study and to fill them with an excitement for more of His Word.

TUESDAY, JUNE 13:

Today, lift up the Bible study classes that are meeting in persecuted areas. Pray that they will be strengthened to encourage others around them with all they are learning.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14:

Pray for open doors and favour in Nigeria as they continue to pursue Lead City University, the Federal University of Technology Akure and the University of Ibadan, so that the students in these universities can experience the life-transforming power of God's Word.

THURSDAY, JUNE 15:

Today is the graduation of Precept Africa Institute students in Ethiopia. Pray for these men and women to be used of God to disciple many within their country with the Word of God.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16:

Lift up the Precept Africa Institute students in Uganda who graduate today, pray that they would continue to be passionate about using God's Word to draw many to Himself.

SATURDAY, JUNE 17:

Pray for graduation day in Kenya today. Ask God to use these students who have faithfully completed the 3-year Precept Africa Institute to ignite a passion in their country for God and His Word.

SUNDAY, JUNE 18:

Please pray for the teenagers who attended the Precept Nigeria Computer Club last month, pray that the seeds planted from God's Word will grow and that they will remain committed to attending the Bible study groups.

MONDAY, JUNE 19:

Pray for all the faithful Institute students, pray that they will persevere in their 3-year studies and that God will use them mightily for His Kingdom in their countries.

TUESDAY, JUNE 20:

Ask God for His blessing over all the translation work being done, especially for Jeremiah Part 1 being translated into Afrikaans.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21:

Bring the Bible study classes in Tanzania before God today, especially the new classes that started after their first-ever Precept Africa Institute last month.

THURSDAY, JUNE 22:

Pray that the partnerships with women's organisations in Ethiopia will lead to many women studying the Bible using Precept studies and result in life change.

FRIDAY, JUNE 23:

Lift up the Precept leaders in Togo today, may they be used to establish many in God's Word.

SATURDAY, JUNE 24:

Please pray for the leadership of Precept Africa. Ask God to fill them with wisdom as they continually seek ways to reach people so that more people will know God more deeply and live differently as a result.

SUNDAY, JUNE 25:

Ask God to pour His blessing on the steadfast pastors very especially this Lord's day, may they be encouraged, equipped and strengthened to remain true to their calling.

MONDAY, JUNE 26:

Pray for the Precept South Africa Winter Youth Event happening in Zola this week. Pray for a partnership with churches in the informal settlement to engage youth with God's Word.

TUESDAY, JUNE 27:

Precept Kenya is still awaiting approval for their tax exemption certificate, please pray that this will be resolved soon.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28:

Lift up the Precept Ministers/ Workers Workshop happening in Ibadan, Nigeria. Ask God to use this workshop to encourage these church leaders and rekindle their desire to make the study of God's Word a priority in their lives.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29:

Please pray for the preparation of the Precept South Africa Institute being planned for next month. Ask God to enable the Institute to go ahead as planned and that the students will not be impacted because of load-shedding in the country.

FRIDAY, JUNE 30:

Many in the Precept Africa team and their families are experiencing health issues, please pray that God would touch their bodies and bring healing.